

Walk of Fame 2014 Mrs Norma King

Mrs Norma King was nominated by The Eastern Goldfields Historical Society for her tremendous contribution to the recording and documenting history of the Western Australia Goldfields.

Mrs Norma King's work on the History of the Goldfields region is a tribute to our past and a legacy for future generations.

Published work includes:

Booklets:

- 1972 The Corroboree
- 1973 Bushrangers on the Burbanks Road
- 1973 The fabulous Golden Mile
- 1973 Ghost Towns of the North Country
- 1975 Early days around Coolgardie
- 1976 Gold Finds near Kambalda
- 1976 Rushes and finds near Old Kambalda
- 1976 When Hannan Street was Young

Books

- 1972 Nickel Country-Gold Country
- 1980 Colourful Tales of the Western Australian Goldfields
- 1988 The Daughters of Midas
- 1992 Wings over the Goldfields: The 50 year history of the Eastern Goldfields section of the Royal Flying Doctors Service
- 1995 The Voice of the Goldfields: 100 years of the Kalgoorlie Miner
- 1996: The Hannans Club: The first 100 years

Autobiography

2003 Following Norma's retirement to Freemantle, she wrote and published her own Biography title: Then they call me Norma

Articles

Beginning of the early 1970's, Norma wrote Countless historical articles for the Kalgoorlie Miner for the next 25 years. Bound copies of these articles are held in the library of the Eastern Goldfields Historical Society.

Norma was a Life Member of:

- WA section of the Fellowship of Australian Writers
- The Eastern Goldfields Historical Society
- The Golden Mile Art Group

In 2013, Norma King received the OAM for her service to the Community as an Historian.